Opportunities for Life Collection

This weekend all four Kentucky dioceses take up a second collection in the week of the anniversary of Roe vs. Wade (January 22), as part of the bishops' unified message advocating for a pro-life culture in Kentucky. In the Archdiocese of Louisville, funds from this collection will provide resources to pregnant women and new families in crisis, including material assistance and grant support for programming at Catholic Charities, Little Way, and other pregnancy resource centers around the Archdiocese. Please be generous!

“The Call to Action: Grief to Growth:”

In honor of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr's upcoming Holiday, Saint Bartholomew Catholic Parish invites ALL to come out and listen to Dr. Renee Sartin and her special guests as they talk about our loved ones who were fatally wounded and/or killed due to gun violence in the city of Louisville. It is important to grow our families back together again; spiritually and mentally. Masks are required and social distancing is expected.

Second Sunday of Ordinary Time

There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit;
there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone.
1 Corinthians 12:4-6

A thankful steward knows that all he or she possesses is the result of God's grace. What we make of our lives depends on our work, but the talents we possess are gifts from God.
